This Contract is subject to a community property interest. Please review the following criteria to determine Community Property Interest:

- You are married.
- During your marriage you resided in AK, AZ, CA, ID, LA, NM, NV, PR, TX, WA, or WI.
- If a community property interest exists and you do not name your spouse as the sole primary beneficiary.

If all of the above is true, then you must have your spouse sign below, before a notary public to waive his or her rights to the proceeds of the Contract. If the space for consent below is not signed, then National Security shall be entitled to rely in good faith that no Community Property Interest exists. In consideration thereof and of National Security's acknowledgment of this beneficiary designation, you, for yourself and your estate, heirs, beneficiaries, successors and assigns, agree to indemnify National Security and hold it harmless from any claims that may arise by virtue of National Security's acceptance of the beneficiary designation above and payment of any claim made in accordance with such designation.

IMPORTANT NOTE: This section only needs to be notarized if there is a Community Property Interest as described above.

Please select one option below:

☐ I am not married and have never been married.

(If selecting this option, a notary is not required.)

Please consult your legal and/or tax advisor for additional information regarding your individual situation.

- If the beneficiary is not a natural person (e.g. Trust or corporation), National Security's sole responsibility is to pay the designated beneficiary and has no other obligation for payment of the proceeds. Settlement Options may be limited when an entity other than a natural person (e.g. Trust, Estate) or a minor child is named as the beneficiary of the Contract. Please refer to your Contract and/or contact your financial professional.
- If your spouse is designated as the beneficiary and there is a subsequent divorce, the former spouse's entitlement to any claim proceeds may be affected by the terms of the divorce decree (or similar document) or by state law which may automatically revoke the beneficiary designation. Beneficiary Change Request Information Sheet

General Instructions:

Please read these instructions carefully before updating your beneficiary information. This sheet was created to assist in completing the Beneficiary Change Request (Form V-4614-NSLAC) but is only a guideline and does not include a description for every situation, nor is it intended to provide legal advice. Please review the information closely and contact your financial professional or an Annuity Customer Service at 877.446.6020 if you have any questions about completing the Beneficiary Change Request (Form V-4614-NSLAC). If you have questions relating to the effectiveness of a beneficiary designation, we recommend you consult your estate planner.

A new beneficiary may be named to a National Security contract at any time prior to the death of the Annuitant. Please note that a beneficiary must be a natural person or legal entity.

Required

- Write the name of each beneficiary legibly. Please note we are unable to accept "children of insured" without additional information identifying each child as a beneficiary.
- Indicate if a beneficiary is a primary or contingent beneficiary by marking the appropriate box. Please refer to Section 1 below for additional information.
- Indicate the relationship between the Annuitant and/or owner(s) and each named beneficiary (non-spouse cannot be accepted as a relationship).
- Provide each beneficiary's Social Security Number, date of birth, phone number, email, and home address, if known.
- Sign and date the form, including appropriate titles (e.g. POA/Guardian) if necessary. Please refer to Section 5 for additional signature requirements.

Additional Information

1) Primary and Contingent Beneficiaries

NOTE: A primary beneficiary must be listed on the beneficiary form. If you do not wish to change the primary beneficiary on file, that beneficiary must still be restated on the new form. If you are naming more than one primary or contingent beneficiary, you may specify the percentage of proceeds each is to receive (proceeds must total 100%). National Security will distribute equal shares of the proceeds to each named beneficiary if percentage designations are not provided. If a beneficiary predeceases the Annuitant that beneficiary's portion of the proceeds will be divided into equal shares among the surviving beneficiaries. Please note: A contingent beneficiary is entitled to the death benefit only if the primary beneficiary on file predeceases the Annuitant or disclaims his/her portion of the proceeds.

2) Trust as a Beneficiary

When designating a trust as a beneficiary, please provide:

- a. The full name of the trust as it appears on the trust document.
- b. The date the trust was created or its Taxpayer Identification Number.

NOTE: If the beneficiary is a testamentary trust, you do not have to indicate the date the trust was created.

IMPORTANT: National Security is not responsible for and will not perform any administration or payment restrictions within a trust as a named beneficiary. Additionally, National Security will not pay an individual trustee but rather the trust as a whole. The named trustee is responsible for distributing the funds per the terms of the trust document.

3) Joint Guaranteed Lifetime Withdrawal Benefit (GLWB) Rider

The terms of the Joint GLWB Rider state the Participating Spouse must be either the sole primary beneficiary or a joint owner of the contract. If the spouse is not named as the sole primary beneficiary or as an owner of the Annuity, the joint benefits of the Rider will terminate. However, the client will continue to be charged for the full Joint GLWB Rider at each contract anniversary. If you wish to proceed with a beneficiary change that violates the terms of the Rider, a signed acknowledgement must be provided attesting to the fact that the joint benefits will terminate, and the Rider charge will continue to be assessed.

NOTE: National Security will not terminate the joint benefits of the Joint GLWB letter without a signed acknowledgement from the contract owner(s).

4) Plan and Custodial Owned Contracts

Contracts owned by a plan may not designate a new beneficiary at National Security. Instead, the plan must remain the primary beneficiary on file. Please contact the plan administrator to update the beneficiary of the plan. Similarly, the primary beneficiary of custodial owned contracts must remain the Custodian. In order to change the beneficiary, please contact the custodian directly.

5) Signature Requirements

- Form must be signed and dated by the contract owner(s). If the contract is jointly owned, both owners must sign the request to update the beneficiary designation.
- Form must be received at National Security within 90 days of the signature date.
- Any additional pages submitted with the Beneficiary Change Request must be signed and dated the same day as the form.
- If the current contract owner lives in a Community Property State and his/her spouse is not named as the sole primary beneficiary, the Spousal Consent must be completed and signed by said spouse in the presence of the notary who must also sign the form. A list of all states that fall under this distinction can be found on page three of the Beneficiary Change Request.
